BACK INTO THE MIDDLE AGES

The Nuremberg Castle, landmark of the city, in which some of the emperors of the Holy Roman Empire resided from time to time, the Nuremberg underground prison, in which earlier legal procedures were practised, are only some of the testimonies to life during the Middle Ages in Nuremberg. Experience a journey through the city's historical past. Two overnight stays include breakfast buffet, a visit to the exhibition "Castle Myth" (Mythos Burg) in the Germanic National Museum, a visit to the Nuremberg underground prison, one "Burgherrenplatte" in the traditional restaurant "Bratwurst Röslein".
